1. Access the EEX EOD Market Data with EEX Group DataSource

At EEX, every registered trader can access complimentary End of Day (EOD) data for the commodities they trade, to support their trading activities.

This document aims to provide a step by step guide on how to order EOD EEX Market Data and receive your credentials for the EEX DataSource server.

More information on the DataSource Service, including technical specifications, can be found and downloaded on the EEX Website as well as on each product page of the Webshop.

1.1 Other EEX Group DataSource applications

EEX Group DataSource offers complementary ways to visualise and/or download EEX Market Data and EEX Transparency Data, in both EOD and Real-Time resolutions.

For Real-Time Market and Transparency Data, we offer:

- EEX Group Desktop App
- EEX Group Excel Tool
- EEX Group Real-Time API

For EOD Market Data and Transparency Data, we offer:

- DataSource sFTP

2. Order your EEX Market Data from the Webshop
